AZRACK, United States District Judge:

On May 28, 2020, defendant Scott Doumas (“Defendant”) moved for compassionate release following the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic. (ECF Nos. 582.) Though the Court denied his motion because the Section 3553(a) sentencing factors weighed against granting him compassionate release, the application was denied “without prejudice to its renewal should Defendant’s condition or the situation at his facility materially worsen.” (Id. at 7.)

Several months later, Defendant has again moved for compassionate release. (ECF No. 604.) Because of increasing cases at his facility and his own positive test, Defendant argues that the Section 3553(a) factors now weigh in favor of granting the motion. The Court has considered Defendant’s arguments and the government’s response and finds that the updated situation does
